MERRY CHRISTMAS

and Season's Greetings.

- Family Life: Christopher is now a freshman in HS and is doing well. He is now less on the computer, and going outside for exercise and even joined the track team. My Dad had a nice visit from his sister from the west coast before he had to be moved to a hospice and passed way soon after. 11 days before his 90th Birthday
- Retirement: Life became a little too hectic for me. Caring for my Dad was getting to be too much for my Mom, so I wanted to spend more time helping out, but the metro line was shut down for the entire summer and my commute was doubled. My work environment had become toxic. With the Secretary of Education trying to shut it down from within using multiple confusing and destructive reorganizations, I decided to retire in June. Right after that my mom decided to put my Dad in a care facility.

Retirement has not set in yet after 32 years and 11 months of federal service.

- Recreation: I got out on the golf course only 4 times but I am still bowling. No senior leagues for me yet but I am running out of excuses to exercise.
- Vacation: No time for vacations, but I hope to be able to do more in the new year, but just with less money 😞

Wishing you all a very special Holiday Season and much success in 2020
